Bangalore 21 July 1913

Dear Sir,

There is plague again in the Chattram next the Hostel Warden's Quarters, and I understand there was a plague death yesterday

On strong representation from Col J Smyth, then Senior Surgeon & Sanitary Commissioner, Government

Gen 472-1

named orders more than once for the acquisition of the Chittagong, but so far as I know nothing was done beyond the issuing of notices under the Lands Acquisition Act

The last time
was about 12 months ago when the Government Order stated that the site was required for a house for the Professor of Physics

Besides the danger

from plague, there are other strong reasons for acquiring the site, In the first place, the squalid buildings near the wardens quarters might be demolished, and the road which is ~~the~~ like the neck of a bottle might be widened

Yours sincerely
M Visvesvaraya
